List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

The premises will operate as a responsible retail convenience store, with the sale of alcohol forming part of the general retail business.

The premises licence holder and Designated Premises Supervisor (DPS) will ensure that appropriate management controls, staff training, operating procedures and security measures are implemented and maintained to promote the four licensing objectives under the Licensing Act 2003:
- The prevention of crime and disorder.
- Public safety.
- The prevention of public nuisance.
- The protection of children from harm.

All staff involved in the sale of alcohol will receive appropriate training before being authorised to undertake alcohol sales. Training will include the requirements of the premises licence, responsible alcohol retailing, age verification, refusal of sales, crime prevention, public safety and the prevention of anti-social behaviour.

Refresher training will be provided as needed, and appropriate records will be maintained at the premises.The DPS will maintain effective oversight of the day-to-day operation of the premises and ensure that all alcohol sales are made in accordance with the Licensing Act 2003.

A strict Challenge 25 age-verification policy will be implemented, supported by appropriate signage, staff training and a refusals register.

The premises will adopt a zero-tolerance approach to underage alcohol sales, violence, disorderly conduct, illegal drug activity and anti-social behaviour.Management will cooperate with the Police, Hillingdon Council and other responsible authorities to ensure the continued promotion of all four licensing objectives.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
